

Curriculum Vitae

Martina Fuchs

fine art, fashion, design grown up in Stuttgart, lives in Berlin apprenticeship as tailor, studies in science of theatre and history of arts at FU Berlin B.A. in dance/performing arts at CNDO Arnhem Master in Design at Udk Berlin, Fashion Class Vivienne Westwood stage costume design for theatre and dance performances work for various fashion labels, graphic design, product design, window display assistant at Udk Berlin, Fashion Class V. Westwood, seminar on Dutch Golden Age fashion research work for V. Westwood Studios London, on arts, culture and history, Select NY on Berlin Fashion (1900-1930) scholarship for research project on folk-costumes, Ruth-Bleckwenn Stiftung member of WERKMEISTER e.V., artistic costumes, sculptural fashion, window design, „Tugend und Laster“, shopwindows by WERKMEISTER e.V. for KaDeWe Berlin „WERKMEISTER-Werkschau“ at Ephraim-Palais, Stiftung Stadtmuseum, Berlin

design teaching assignments at Udk Berlin, AMD Berlin, AVA Frankfurt, MKK Dortmund artwork: sculpture, conceptual embroidery, drawing, graphic work